All-in-one bundle includes stand, microphone and lighting

iKlip Grip Pro multi-function stand lets you shoot from the perfect angle

iRig Mic Lav lapel mic captures professional audio easily in any situation

A 6” LED ring light offers color temp and brightness to create any mood

Works with all your favorite smartphone apps right out of the box

Always get the perfect shot

The included iKlip Grip Pro is 4 accessories in one - a desktop tripod, handgrip, full-sized tripod and monopod, so no matter how or where you’re shooting, you’re covered! It fits any sized smartphone and most action cameras securely, to precisely position your phone to get the best angle whether you’re at home or on the go.

The convenient ¼" UNC mount on the top makes it easy to mount accessories like a ring light, and an included Bluetooth shutter lets you start and stop recording remotely.

Crystal clear audio iRig Mic Lav is a lapel microphone that plugs directly into your smartphone or tablet via the headphone jack.* It’s perfect for use on-camera, since it captures your voice clearly but doesn’t distract viewers, and a generous 60” / 150 cm cable lets you shoot at the right distance.

Best of all, iRig Mic Lav works with all your favorite apps, so you can enjoy crystal clear audio on social media, videos, live-streams and more!

Set the scene

To create the right vibe, the iRig Video Creator Bundle also includes a 6” LED ring light with adjustable color and brightness so you always look your best. It mounts right onto the top of iKlip Grip Pro to give you a convenient all-in-one solution you can carry almost anywhere.

And no batteries are required, just connect to any USB power supply or battery pack and shoot at home or on the go!

Go Pro

Looking for a more professional solution? Step up to the iRig Video Creator HD bundle, adding our award-winning iRig Mic HD 2 digital microphone for radio-ready sound quality, plus a larger LED ring light for a wider range of color and brightness options.

Works with all your favorite apps

Whether you want to create fun, daily videos for your Instagram Story, kickstart your YouTube channel, or engage your favorite Facebook group with live-streaming content, the iRig Video Creator works out of the box with any app that captures audio and video. So you can look and sound like a pro with an endless range of ways to create.

With the iRig Video Creator Bundle, you can create amazing videos more easily than ever.

The Creator series from IK Multimedia puts you in the spotlight with fast and easy tools to help you create professional content. Its budget-friendly solutions are ideal for YouTubers, podcasters, live streamers and other social media platforms, and include a variety of mobile and studio-friendly microphones, interfaces and smartphone stands. With convenient features and flexible options, you’ll be covered wherever and whenever inspiration strikes.
